

Identifying Adverbs

Circle two adverbs in each of the sentences below.

He ran quickly but he still missed the bus.

He really enjoyed the party enormously.

She worked industriously to get as much done as possible in the time.

Come here please, I need to speak to you urgently.

We ate there once but the food was cooked dreadfully so we didn't return.

He walks hastily and so arrived early for the meeting.

He hadn't quite finished the job but said he would get on with completing it promptly.

I knew before but I had genuinely forgotten to bring it.

We often go to the theatre and enjoy all the productions enormously.

I was already late and apologised profusely on the telephone.

We searched everywhere with no luck but the lady helpfully found it for us!

The clock chimed hourly but gradually lost time and needed winding up.

Identifying Adverbs

Circle two adverbs in each of the sentences below.

He ran quickly but he still missed the bus.

He really enjoyed the party enormously.

She worked industriously to get as much done as possible in the time.

Come here please, I need to speak to you urgently.

We ate there once but the food was cooked dreadfully so we didn't return.

He walks hastily and so arrived early for the meeting.

He hadn't quite finished the job but said he would get on with completing it promptly.

I knew before but I had genuinely forgotten to bring it.

We often go to the theatre and enjoy all the productions enormously.

I was already late and apologised profusely on the telephone.

We searched everywhere with no luck but the lady helpfully found it for us!

The clock chimed hourly but gradually lost time and needed winding up.

Identifying Adverbs

Circle two adverbs in each of the sentences below.

I really don't think I can eat this dinner quickly.

We went there again because the food was exceptionally good.

She said she was crying loudly because she had just hit her toe on a chair leg.

He did his work well and was rewarded handsomely for his efforts.

Gemma was seated so comfortably in the armchair that she suddenly fell asleep.

It's about fifteen minutes from here if you drive directly through the centre of town.

The puppy ate his food greedily but left mess everywhere.

She looked away from the painting and then gazed thoughtfully at the work of art next to it.

The dog growled fiercely at the young boy who then ran away in fear!

He always arrives late and it annoys me greatly.

She speaks English well and I understand her perfectly.

He goes too fast and so needs to learn to drive more carefully.

Identifying Adverbs

Circle two adverbs in each of the sentences below.

I really don't think I can eat this dinner quickly.

We went there again because the food was exceptionally good.

She said she was crying loudly because she had just hit her toe on a chair leg.

He did his work well and was rewarded handsomely for his efforts.

Gemma was seated so comfortably in the armchair that she suddenly fell asleep.

It's about fifteen minutes from here if you drive directly through the centre of town.

The puppy ate his food greedily but left mess everywhere.

She looked away from the painting and then gazed thoughtfully at the work of art next to it.

The dog growled fiercely at the young boy who then ran away in fear!

He always arrives late and it annoys me greatly.

She speaks English well and I understand her perfectly.

He goes too fast and so needs to learn to drive more carefully.