16th February 2024

Half term is finally upon us!

This half term has absolutely flown by and the next half term is even shorter! This week we had Lions and Jaguars book and a biscuit and also the Valentines disco. It was fantastic to see so many people supporting these events.

We hope everyone has a healthy and restful half term break and we look forward to welcoming you all back on 26th February 2024.

Head of School

World Book Day Celebrations

This year for World Book Day we have West End in Schools returning to deliver workshops bringing books alive. The children will learn how to recreate narrative through movement, concluding with a class performance.

We do not require the children to dress in character this year but on Monday 4th March we will be holding a mufti day with a contribution of £1.00 to contribute towards the cost of the workshops. This will be payable via the School Gateway

On Wednesday 6th March, we have the award winning and Sunday Times Best Selling Author Megan Rix visiting. Megan writes a series of books about Lizzie who is hearing impaired. On this day we will also be hosting some hearing-impaired children from Northampton.

During this week we will also be running a second-hand book sale. There will be a range of fiction and non-fiction books for sale ranging from 50p to £1.50, this is a cash sale.
